Beloved friend to many cherished by all

Edwina was an extraordinary individual. One of Ed's greatest strengths was her devotion to friendships, maintaining close bonds with friends from every stage of her life. Whether they were school friends from Clayfield College, friends from Bond University, friends from her Sydney and Gold Coast years, or kindred spirits met in her global travels, Eddie kept each friendship alive and cherished, bridging the miles and years. This loyalty and love made her a beloved friend and confidante to many, and she was honoured to stand by her friends' sides as a bridesmaid time and again - a role she embraced with joy, grace, and the signature support she gave so freely.

Edwina was exceptionally well travelled and, in addition to Australia, spent time living in the United Kingdom, China, Mongolia, Vietnam and Thailand. With each new place, Eddie embraced the world with an open heart and adventurous spirit, finding joy in cultures, traditions, and friendships in every corner.

A true foodie, her social media became a gallery of vibrant, mouth-watering dishes, each one a reflection of her love for food and for the people who shared it with her.

It was rare to meet Edwina and not be struck by her beauty, style, intellect, and humour. Edwina carried herself with effortless grace and an unmistakable charm, and her wit was as quick as it was clever. At times, she could be intimidating, possessing a quiet confidence that commanded respect. Yet beneath that poised exterior was a warmth and a humour that, once shared, drew people in deeply. Her presence was magnetic; she never sought to be the centre of attention. Instead, Ed lit up a room with her mischief and humour. She was so very entertaining!

While she may be gone from our sight, Edwina will live on in the hearts of those who loved her, scattered across continents yet united in grief and gratitude for the many adventures we were blessed to have with her.

"Death must be so beautiful.
To lie in the soft brown earth,
with the grasses waving above one's head,
and listen to silence.
To have no yesterday, and no tomorrow.
To forget time, to forget life, to be at peace.
You can help me. You can open for me the portals of death's house, for love is always with you,
and love is stronger than death is."

CELEBRATING EDWINA

To get back my youth I would do anything in the world, except take exercise, get up early, or be respectable.
