

The LANGTON Family

Sid Langton attended the Witta School for a short time. Three children of Sid & Jessie Langton attended the Maleny Schools from the 1940's to the 1950's. They were:

Tom & June Langton

1. June Langton married Len Lowe, who also attended schools in the Maleny area. They had three children - Raymond, Karen & Marilyn Lowe, who all attended the Maleny Schools. Raymond married Louis Czechura, who attended the Maleny Schools. They had three children - Malcolm, Graham & Kevin Lowe who all attended Maleny School for part of their schooling.

Karen married John Lusk who attended the Maleny Schools. They had two children - Jacinta & Simone Lusk, who also attended the Maleny Schools.

Marilyn married Stan Johnston (of 'Craiglea' fame). They had three children - Jason, Wade & Krystal Johnston, who attended Kenilworth School.

2. George Langton left school at 14 and worked mainly in the mining industry as a contractor. He worked at Mt. Isa, Kalgoorlie and New Guinea. In the early 1980's he moved to the Phillipines where he and his wife Helen, own and operate a resort at Sabang Beach, Puerto Galera, Mindoro.
3. Tom Langton attended both the Primary and High Schools. He was the first male prefect at the High School. Margaret Waugh was the first female prefect. Whilst Tom was not much of a scholar he excelled at sport. He represented Queensland in cricket and was a placegetter in athletes at the Queensland State School championships. Tom left school in 1955 and joined the Commonwealth Bank. In 1958 he joined the Police Force, where he served at Roma Street, Camp Hill, Cloncurry, McKinley, Burketown and finally Townsville. In 1972 he resigned from the Police Force and with his wife Diana, purchased a Newsagency. In 1982 they sold their Newsagencies and Tom joined the Taxation Office where he remained until 2001, when he retired. His wife died in 2010. Tom is currently living in a retirement village in Beachmere.
