A wedding of interest to many friends both of Maleny and Warwick districts took place at the Warwick Baptist Church on January 18, when Miss Ingrie Mary Erlandson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erlandson, of Warwick, and Sister of Maleny Hospital for many years, was married to Mr. G. S. Pattemore, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pattemore, Maleny. The Rev. Kajeski officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore ivory crepe made on classical lines featuring a cowl neckline. Her tulle veil was lent by Mrs. Roy Cork (Maleny). The bridesmaids were Miss F. Erlandson (twin sister of the bride) and Miss Joyce Pattemore (sister of the bridegroom). The former wore pink georgette, and the latter a frock of eau-de-nil georgette. Both frocks were made on straight lines, featuring pintucks and faggoted yokes. They also wore cellophane hats. Miss Dell Erlandson (niece of the bride), as flower girl, was frocked in pink georgette. The duties of best man were carried out by Mr. T. Brown (Montville). Mr. E. Dickens, of Maleny, was groomsman.

A reception was held at the C.W.A. hostel where the bride's mother received the guests wearing a frock of black floral crepe de Chene finished with touches of green, to which she added a black hat. Mrs. Pattemore, mother of the bridegroom, chose black georgette finished with a faggoted neckline and spray of white violets and a hat to tone.

On leaving for Toowoomba, and later for Caloundra, where the honeymoon is being spent, the bride wore a navy blue floral dress finished with plain navy finger tip coat and a hat to tone.
