

W H O (Bill) Brooker

1905 - 1999

Obituary

W.H.O. (BILL) BROOKER
1905-1999

BORN at Witta, Bill passed away in July 1999 and was buried at Witta Cemetary.

During his life-time, he married Murtha and in 1933 they purchased a dairy farm, Kybong, on the Mary River. Here they reared two boys and two girls. After his wife passed away in 1960, he later sold the property and bought a business in Maleny which he operated until his retirement in 1970.

He then married Annie Burchel and they lived in Alderley, before eventually moving to Maleny where he lived for the rest of his life.

Bill was a talented pianist and played at Brisbane concerts and for all local dances. In 1928 he joined the Oddfellows Lodge and was still a member when he passed away.

Bill is survived by his wife, four children, ten grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and lovingly remembered by Annie's four children, ten grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.